

Pro-Link GLOBAL Visa & Immigration Services Maximizes Its Global Resources By Adding a Billing and Accounting Manager to its Ever-Expanding Global Immigration Team

Debra Stonebraker joins Pro-Link GLOBAL, a niche practice providing a concierge level of global visa and immigration services, bringing nine years of accounting, computer applications and inventory management experience.

San Francisco, CA (PRWeb) October 3, 2008 -- Pro-Link GLOBAL Visa & Immigration Services, the leader in employment-based corporate global immigration consulting services, announces an addition to its Operations Team, a new Manager of Billing and Accounts, Debra Stonebraker. Debra, who is based out of the California office, graduated Summa Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Science degree in Technical Management with a concentration in Accounting from DeVry University, and received an Associate of Science degree, with honors, in Computer Applications from Butte College.

Having managed her own consulting and training computer business for six years, and run the business operation of a successful U.S immigration law firm for the past year, Debra has superb qualifications for the busy consulting practice that is Pro-link GLOBAL today.

Debra's proficiency in Six Sigma programming will ensure that the Pro-link GLOBAL business goals of "business excellence through concierge level services" are achieved and maintained using proven successful models of delivery.

Lance Elliott, Vice President, Operations said, "Pro-Link GLOBAL is responding to the scalability of the market in our niche industry and we are certain Debra's proven Six Sigma ability and skills will aid in streamlining our billing and accounting processes as well as providing a central point of access for our internal clients with her great track record in computer technology and accounting."

Debra has spent years donating her time to achieving excellence as evidenced by her volunteer efforts in CA on the California Council of Excellence (CCE) and the American Society of Quality (ASQ); and in her spare time, is the Secretary of the Board of Directors of the Silicon Valley Regional Council for Excellence (SVRCE) local chapter in San Jose, California.
